

Adrian Gan

Professional Learning Consultant

Adrian has over 20 years teaching experience as a classroom teacher, Head of Department, Vice-Principal and Assistant Director in both local and international settings. Adrian is an International Baccalaureate (IB) Lead Educator, representing the IB in a range of roles..

As an accredited Visible Learning+ Educator, Adrian has supported schools in their Visible Learning journey. He is passionate about high-quality teaching and learning, and facilitating opportunities for schools and teachers to put high-quality, evidence-based research into action. His work representing Corwin gives full expression to his conviction that the needs of learners are best served when schools build a culture of learning which aspires to nurture lifelong learners who have the confidence and capacity to direct their own learning.