

Andrew Hassies

Professional Learning Consultant

Andrew is passionate about effective teaching and learning. He has 20 years experience in teaching in a rural high school and has performed numerous roles such as Head Teacher Science, Head Teacher, mentor and Impact Coach. Andrew has also contributed to the Corwin Professional Learning Conference. His belief in the importance of Visible Learning is based on evidence from his own school and the impact that Corwin had for giving teachers a tool kit for sustainable success. Andrew's current school features in the Corwin Stories of Impact series.
