

Ben Walsh

Professional Learning Consultant

Ben has extensive experience as a principal in four school settings spanning from Sydney's Eastern Suburbs to South-Western Sydney. He is passionate about evidence-based practices in education and has led the development of a Visible Learning culture in two schools over the past six years. As a leader of innovation, Ben values people and invests in their development and wellbeing, for he understands that it is only through people that you can bring about effective, sustained and positive change in any organisation.