

Catherine Kimmosley

Professional Learning Consultant

Catherine is a passionate educator who has over 35 years' experience in education as a classroom practitioner, Assistant Principal, Religious Education Coordinator, teacher educator, instructional leader and coach, across NSW and Queensland. She is currently working as an Education Officer for the Toowoomba, Catholic Schools Office and leads, supports and serves the school communities in this Diocese.

As an accredited, Visible Learning+ Educator Catherine has supported schools implementing Visible Learning+, focused on making the learning process transparent and accessible to students. She has deep knowledge of school contexts, quality professional learning and how to effectively implement Visible Learning in K-12 settings. Catherine has also been a contributor to the Corwin Professional Learning Conference and supported schools which are recognised as Visible Learning+ Certified and a Corwin AU Stories of Impact.