

Elizabeth Coustois

Professional Learning Consultant

Elizabeth has over 30 years teaching experience as a classroom teacher, Head of Department, Curriculum Consultant, Literacy and Numeracy Consultant, Deputy Principal, Head of Curriculum and Professional Learning and Principal in both local and international settings. Elizabeth has worked in international schools in India, Africa, and Thailand, where she was a founding principal. Elizabeth has led the implementation of Visible Learning at Mawson Primary School in the ACT, where she is currently the principal. This has led to Mawson being the first public primary school in Australia to be certified as a Visible Learning plus school.

Elizabeth strives to provide teachers with high quality professional learning which leads to collective teacher efficacy and improved teacher practice. Elizabeth has worked closely with Corwin for the past four years and has an in-depth understanding of implementing the visible learning research in a school. She has led teams to embed use of learning intentions, success criteria and effective feedback to ensure greater teacher clarity. At the heart of teachers' daily work is the mindset that they are evaluators of their impact on their students.
