

Gilbert Halaszow

Professional Learning Leader

Gilbert's extensive education experience both locally and internationally includes expertise in school leadership, arts education, learning technologies, learning designs and frameworks for collaboration and creativity. Gilbert enjoys collaborating creatively, working with schools across Australia to support teachers and school leaders so they can have the greatest impact on learners.