

Gilbert Halaszow

Senior Professional Learning Leader

In his role as Senior Professional Learning Leader Gilbert has extensive experience in both professional learning and school improvement across Australia and Asia-Pacific and is a certified VL+ Master Trainer.

Before joining Corwin Gilbert worked for over 30 years as an arts educator and school leader in UK, HK and Australian schools. Within those roles he led the development of quality teaching practice and a variety of vocational, academic and skill-based curriculum, including the International Baccalaureate.

In addition to his strengths in developing research based practice with schools Gilbert's expertise include; leadership, coaching, arts education, learning technologies and collaborative practice. Gilbert loves his role and considers it a privilege to partner with schools to develop teachers' and school leaders' understanding of how to have the greatest impact on their learners.
