

Joanne Doherty

Professional Learning Consultant

Joanne has over 35 years' experience in primary schools across Melbourne as a teacher and in various leadership roles. She is currently the principal of the first Visible Learning+ Certified School in Australia which is featured in two of the Corwin Stories of Impact series. She has also contributed to the Corwin Professional Learning Conference.

Joanne believes in an evidence based and data driven approach to leading a school through the improvement journey recognising that each journey is unique to each school. She believes that when teachers, leaders and students work collaboratively to understand and evaluate their impact, give and receive high quality, effective feedback and have the skills, qualities and strategies to put that feedback into action, there is significant impact on learning. Joanne is passionate about learning for all- staff and students.
