

Karen Dymke

Professional Learning Consultant

As a teacher educator, senior leader, project manager, coach, researcher, and a practitioner in the classroom, Karen's role in education has seen her work across a range of sectors. Karen brings a unique breadth of knowledge, balance, and expertise to the team. Karen's work has included professional learning for the 21st century, the VCAL, literacy, classroom observations and coaching. She enjoys providing support for teaching teams and working with the knowledge that is in the room.