

Kim Edwards
Professional Learning Consultant

Kim has over 30 years' experience as a classroom teacher, Head of Department, Head of Middle School and Deputy Principal (K - 12). She is a very experienced International Baccalaureate (IB) Lead Educator delivering a range of teacher and leadership workshops for the International Baccalaureate. Kim is also an accredited Concept-based teaching and learning trainer.

Kim led her school's Visible Learning journey and on-going feedback initiative, which was featured in John Hattie's book, 'Visible Learning into Action - International Case Studies'.

Kim is an accredited Visible Learning Plus Consultant and supports schools in the practical implementation of the Visible learning research, drawing on her extensive classroom and school leadership experience. She is passionate about supporting teachers to implement high quality evidence based strategies into their practice.