

Lyn Coote

Professional Learning Leader: Development & Design

With over 20 years' experience in schools across South Australia and five years in Hong Kong, Lyn has supported learning through a range of leadership roles at a school and system level. Her areas of passion are mathematics, developmentally appropriate learning, and supporting staff to strengthen connections between the written, taught and assessed curriculum. Lyn has experience as a coach and workshop facilitator, and has supported the work of the International Baccalaureate and MLATS (Mathematical Learning and Teaching for Success).
