

Peter Roberts
Professional Learning Consultant

Peter is a classroom teacher in a high school in regional New South Wales which is featured in the Corwin Stories of Impact series. He has supported the implementation of Visible Learning across the school as a teacher, Impact Coach and faculty head teacher. Peter has also contributed to the Corwin Professional Learning Conference as a Living Book. He has a passion for building learner capacity, and helping teachers monitor their own impact to gain the best possible outcomes for their students.