

Rachele Domenici

Professional Learning Consultant

Rachele has been working in education for 20 years in a number of roles across Brisbane and Sydney, including classroom teacher, Instructional Leader, Head of Curriculum and Deputy Principal. One of the schools Rachele worked in is featured in the Corwin Stories of Impact series. In leading the development of a strong Visible Learning culture across two schools, Rachele's passion for Visible Learning inspired her to become a consultant with Corwin Australia. Rachele has delivered professional learning to schools across Australia, and is passionate about supporting teachers in how they can effectively use evidence-based practice from Visible Learning+ to enhance the quality of the learning, evaluate impact and develop students who are equipped with tools and strategies to become their own teachers.
