

Sarah Yates

Professional Learning Consultant

Sarah has experience of working within primary schools for almost 30 years in Australia as well as the UK, across the public and private sectors. In various roles, including now as Assistant Principal (Primary) and Impact Coach, she has been, and continues to be, passionate about designing the most effective learning experiences for learners of all ages which will support them today, tomorrow and into the future. She has led her P-12 school since 2018 in their Visible Learning journey to date which included being awarded Visible Learning+ Certified Status in 2021. Sarah has also been a contributor to the Corwin Professional Learning Conference as a Living book.

Sarah is enthusiastic about engaging with teachers and leaders across different contexts to enhance their capacity to implement the research so as to be more impactful in their roles. She is also keen that student learners are encouraged to have voice and choice in the learning process.