

Shane Crawford

Professional Learning Engagement Specialist

Shane has extensive educational experience in senior school leadership, classroom teaching and consultancy roles across the Asia-Pacific. He was the Impact Coach of the first Certified Visible Learning+ school in Australia and currently Shane is a Professional Learning Leader for Corwin Australia and Master Trainer VL+. Shane's previous school is featured in two of the Corwin Stories of Impact series. Shane's wide-ranging expertise in schools and consultancy supports educators to translate research into practice locally, nationally and internationally. He collaborates in teaching and learning instructional design to support educator learning, online course development and implementation, curriculum design and school implementation and training. Shane is passionate about partnering with educators to support ongoing use of quality learner evidence and evaluation of implementation efforts to help make better decisions that moves learning forward for all learners.