

Tracy Fielder

Professional Learning Consultant

Tracy has over 30 years' experience in both government and independent primary schools. Her roles have included classroom teacher, instructional leader, coach, International Baccalaureate PYP coordinator and Deputy Head of School. For the past 17 years, Tracy has been the Head of Junior School at various independent schools in the north-west of Victoria. Her experiences have included International Baccalaureate workshop and authorisation leader in schools across the Asia Pacific. In more recent years, Tracy has supported her school's Visible Learning journey and joined the Corwin AU team as a consultant.

Tracy is passionate about evidence based research that supports curriculum design and effective pedagogy. She is enthusiastic about partnering with educators to build capacity with the aim to prepare the next generation with the skills they require for the world that awaits them.