

Vania Tiatto

Director of Professional Learning

Vania has worked in education for over 25 years, with roles in schools including head of school (in Australia and Hong Kong), assistant principal, head of professional learning, senior professional learning leader and classroom teacher.

Vania has broad experience in leading organisational improvement, development and implementation of professional learning and curriculum, policy development, strategic planning, instructional design, facilitation of adult learning, leadership development and coaching.

She is deeply committed to partnering with educators in an effort to continually improve teaching and learning to ensure success for all learners.